ORDER:

In G.O. (Ms) No. 3332 Dev. dated the 22nd February 1943, the Government directed that the educational concessions sanctioned to the children and other dependents of soldiers who took part in the last war should also be grated in all the Co-operative Training Institutes, which should be treated as aided institutions under "professional" class for the purpose of the concessions. In G.O. 1622 E.&.P.H. dated the 23rd June 1948 theseee educational concessions have been extended to the children and other dependdants of the Indian National Army personnel - those who went from the Indian Forces and those who were recruited from civilians outside India. His Excellency the Governor of Madras directs that the educational concessions given to the children and dependants of Indian National Army personnel should be granted & in all the Co-operative Training Institutes also.
